NEW YORK, August 27, 2025—Gagosian is pleased to announce that Jeff Koons is now represented by the gallery. Challenging borders between mass culture, the history of art, and spectacle to produce contemporary icons, Koons is one of the most influential artists working today. Over two decades, Gagosian has staged thirteen solo exhibitions by Koons in Beverly Hills, Hong Kong, London, and New York. The gallery has shown sculptures and paintings from defining series, including Celebration (1994–2019), Easyfun–Ethereal (2000–02), Popeye (2002–13), Hybrid (2003–13), Hulk Elvis (2004–), Antiquity (2008–), and Gazing Ball (2012–). In 2014, Gagosian presented Split-Rocker (2000) at Rockefeller Center, New York, a monumental sculpture covered with over fifty thousand flowering plants, coinciding with Koons’s retrospective at the Whitney Museum of American Art.
